Presidents Report for 26 October 2016

Well I didn't think I had much to report this week, but then as usual things change. Wednesday evening was a social night and 32 members and ex members came along for Ross Mellor's 90th Birthday. Ross made a kind $100 donation to Rotary. Thursday I met with the MWSC Interact group who had organized a clothes drop for the Brotherhood of St. Lawrence. They are now arranging for an ice cream day for the school to raise funds with an ice cream van to sell to over 300 students. Saturday morning is a training time for club members to learn all the new rules to comply with new govt. expectations. We are in the process of purchasing Rotary Polo Shirts for each member to wear at fund raising activities. Our new Sexual Abuse Liability Insurance has been completed and signed by Secretary Paul and myself, so we now comply with another govt. requirement. Our Club By-Laws and a revised Constitution are now in place thanks to Terry. Our new market format is about to start with 2 BBQs operating with the new one offering bacon and egg muffins. Lyn is to increase the float to $750 so each BBQ will not run short on change. We are now working with District 9550 in relation to recently chartered Rotary Club of Timor Leste. 26th October is Calcutta night at the Mulgrave Country Club.

Regards Keith

Postscript from Terry O'Brien – Terry will write an expose of the evening, closer to the date of Ross's birthday of 7 Nov.
