Presidents Report for 4 May 2016 (from PE Keith standing in for President Sean)

Well last Wednesday evening was a huge success, when one of our charter members had his 90th birthday. With a full list of members in attendance plus many former members and some of our charter members the night was loud and cheerful. Terry O'Brien who the night was all about was in his usual fine form when he talked about his first cruise. Terry had everyone in laughter explaining the problem he had with a two way tap that operated both the shower and bath. He pushed, pulled and hit the tap, but water still kept filling the bath, then he thought if he pulled the cord hanging down that might change the water flow. It certainly changed things as the emergency team rushed to his aid. Terry now knows how to make the bath tap into a shower tap.

He then gave one of his Banjo Patterson poems to close. Sometimes Rotary meetings are very different. Many thanks to Robyn Morrow and Charlie Keidge for organising the night. President Elect Keith.

MEMBERS ANNOUNCEMENTS

Hi Ros

What a memorable night. Just wanted to let you know how much Ross and I enjoyed ourselves. Terry really is special. There is the anticipation that he is going to perform and then there is the actual performance. Never disappoints. Loved the shower story. No imagination needed. Good to be with old friends again too. We drove down to Safety Beach after the dinner and Ross didn't stop talking about the evening and reminiscing about the old times with the Mount Waverley Rotary Club. Ross talking is not that unusual of course.

Ross is looking forward to the invitation for his 90th. Just confirming the date - Wednesday 19 October 2016. Hope this is ok. Birthday actually on Mon 7 Nov but this is made difficult with Melbourne Cup Calcutta for the club and our problem is family travelling from interstate for a party on Sat 5 Nov - how many and how long will they be staying etc. so I feel it would be better before his birthday than after if that suits your members.

Cheers
Anna M

OAKLEIGH MARKET REPORT

President Sean and I had a very dreary and cold day at the Oakleigh Market today (1/5). It was the quietest market I have ever witnessed (due to the bad weather and to Greek Easter). We only netted $730 for the day!
