PRESIDENTS REPORT 5 MARCH 2014

Rhonda and Philip provided a very interesting presentation last week on their recent trip to Cambodia. It was in effect an update on the work they and others have been involved in at Siem Reap, and it is very rewarding for them to see how the individual children have progressed since the project commenced. Ron Thorpe added his observations from a trip he and Gay recently made to the area, and it was clear from Ron's words that what he saw made a great impression on both of them.

It was good to have some visitors attend our meeting this week. Who knows, we just might have some new members soon. One step at a time. If you know anybody that you think might enjoy our club and what we do, encourage them to come along to one of our meetings. If you prefer, talk to Rhonda and she can arrange for a personal invitation for them.

This week we are having a presentation on Chinese History and Culture by Yan Zhang. Let's have a good roll up for this night – this should be a particularly interesting talk.

By the way, your overwhelming response to my question last Wednesday convinces me that we should standardise on the meeting times. I can see no good reason for partners night to start 30 minutes later than our other meeting nights. Therefore let's have all meetings start at 6:00PM for 6:30PM from now on.

You might be surprised at the number of times I am asked "what time does the meeting start this week" or "is it partners night tonight?" Partners, wives, girlfriends, boyfriends are welcome at our Leighoak meetings. If anybody accidentally doubles up, they can be on separate tables! We want to encourage people to attend.

Adrian is doing a great job increasing our number of Centurion members. It is only a small commitment, $100 per year tax deductable, so see Adrian to sign up. While on commitments, the MWCIS food pick up from Coles on Friday is very important, as there are some very needy people out there. If you are on the roster and can't make it, please swap with somebody, or ring Glen or ring me rather than not turn up. Thanks.

Adrian and I are going to run the recycled goods sale at the Oakleigh market again - probably in October. This is early notice to put anything car boot size and saleable to one side for us. We will store it until October.

See you Wednesday

Terry
