Presidents Report for 14 September 2016

Another successful week in Rotary. Our nearly twins Beth and Loretta are going great and the Trivia night is on track. Wednesdays meeting we inducted our new member Margot who is now on Geoff's Youth team. We also welcomed her long time friend Robyn Kamer who came along as moral support for Margot. Sally Douglas spoke about her 5 years working for the Women's Resource Centre in Cambodia and told of the problems left after the mass killings of nearly all educated people by Pol Pot. In the Footy Tipping Beth Merkus after a battle of the sexes came first and Peter Rees was 2nd.losing by 1 point. Next week our Guest speaker is Director of Melway Mapping David Godfrey. So no one should get lost after David's talk. On a sad note past DG Fred Hay from Waverley Club past away this week. We send our condolences to Fred's wife Irene and all his friends at Waverley Rotary.

Regards Keith

BOARD DELIBERATIONS

The following is a list of indigenous projects which will be considered by the Board:

1. Feed The Little Children program. Supported by the Broome Rotary Club WA.

Note: A Rotarian with the Broom W.A. Club, Padmini, will be a guest speaker at the Rotary Club of Box Hill on Tuesday 27 September. Cost is $35. Notify David Tolstrup by Thursday Sept 22nd so that you can be booked in.

2. Wongutha Christian Aboriginal Parent-Directed School (CAPS) in Western Australian. Michael Jacobs (Trustee of the Len Cuzens Trust) outlines several projects to support the Wongutha Christian Aboriginal Parent-Directed School (CAPS) in Western Australian. Also it should be noted that for the first time ever a Wongutha CAPS student has been selected to go on Rotary Youth Exchange in 2017. Projects as follows:

1. Independent Living Units. Support for the provision of furniture for 2 independent living units. The total cost to fit these units is around $20,000.

2. Connecting Boarding Houses up to Internet and School Computer Network. Satellite upgrade for the internet service at the school is being undertaken. Support is required to provide trench cabling from the school to the boarding houses to enabling student access the internet and school network for homework. The cost is estimated at $21,579

3. School Trip Support for the whole school to take a trip to Sydney, Canberra and Melbourne. This is the first time for a trip of this magnitude in 17 years. The students and staff are contributing $500 each to the trip, but will not completely cover the cost of the trip without drawing on school operational income. Any support for this trip is welcome.

4. Driver Training. A second driver training car has been obtained and support is required for funding of a full time driving instructor.

Cheers

Secretary Paul

FOOTY TIPPING COMPETITION

The 2016 AFL Tipping Completion for the Mt Waverley Rotary Club has come to a close. It was a terrific battle with the lead changing a number of times but at the end Beth Merkus just pipped Pete Rees by 1 point. Pete can you believe that!

In a competition that has been marked by so many surprise results congratulations must go to Beth and Pete for an excellent year of tipping. Only two members picked 9 winners exclusively and that was Ron Thorpe in Round 1 and Pete Rees in Round 19. I felt this indicated truly the talents and skills displayed by some members. In Round 11 we had 4 members who picked 9 – Robyn, Rhonda, Sean, and Andrew. Well done but our rules state that you need to select 9 winners exclusively to win a prize. Bad luck guys!

Thank you to all and sundry especially our erstwhile Treasurer who has done an excellent job throughout the season. Thank you Lyn. I hope we can have many more participants in 2017

Till next year – happy finals season!

Ron Thorpe

ROMAC

Dear D9810 ROMAC Team and Supporters,
Here is a lovely photo of Tina (our patient of early last Year) and her baby sister, put on Facebook, celebrating Tina's 13th birthday. As I am not sure how many of us use Facebook (I don't, my daughter sent me this photo) I thought I would send it around in any case. Looks like a fit and healthy Tina is enjoying her new life back with her family!

Waverley Hockey Club

Cnr Winbirra Parade & High St Rd Ashburton

Ample parking

BYO nibbles, drinks at reduced bar prices

Please return ticket butts & money to Charlie on Wed night or Beth & Loretta the following week.

YOUTH

There were 3 schools participating with 6 students; our Club had 2 students each from Avila College and MWSC and the other school participating was Rowville Secondary College. The competition was tough and all contestants performed very well but unfortunately the two contestants from MWSC, Vidarshana Satish and Emma Gilbert, were pipped at the post and did not move through to the semi finals. The two contestants from Avila, Atara Thenabadu and Sophia Grubnic will now contest the semi finals along with the two contestants from Rowville in October.

We congratulate all contestants and wish those moving through to the semi-finals all the best for success.

Geoff
