Presidents Report for 23 November 2016

Wednesday night social went very well with about 24 members and partners attending. We had a short report from Sarah Heathcote reminding us the wine and cheese night is on the 25/11/2016. Mario and Catalina again came to see us and have decided we are the club for them. Next week is our AGM and it will be a full on one with lots of new rules and bylaws to go through. Secretary Paul is now sleeping well in Australia after being in New Zealand when the earthquake struck, Saturday 26th. November in the morning we need helpers at Terry's house to wrap presents for the Children's Christmas Party. Also check with Loretta if she needs more help with the food and setting up for the party. The Rotary Market had its worst week when the weather turned so bad, many stallholders went home early as customers stayed away with the heavy rain. Lets hope next market is a good one.
